

Jonas Jin

88 College Road West · Princeton, NJ 08544
Phone: (330) 316-7306 · Email: jyjin@princeton.edu

EDUCATION

Washington University in St. Louis, St. Louis, MO August 2012—May 2016
Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Math, May 2016
Cumulative GPA: 3.94/4.0 Major GPA: 3.93/4.0

Princeton University, Princeton, NJ 2016—Present
PhD Candidate in Economics

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Development Economics, Macroeconomics, Urban Economics, Behavioral Economics

EXPERIENCE

Research Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, Kansas City, MO June 2015—August 2015
Economic Research Intern
Found and analyzed effects of openness on growth in various parameterizations of a two-capital economy with convex capital adjustment costs, including extensions that imposed borrowing constraints; compared to previous results for a closed economy.

Washington University in St. Louis, St. Louis, MO August 2014—June 2015
Undergraduate Research Assistant
Collected and analyzed data for household nutrition based on government surveys in Malawi, Tanzania, Uganda, and China; analyzed nutrition data to determine risk of population migration from rural to urban locations and model subsequent growth.

Teaching Washington University in St. Louis, St. Louis, MO January 2015—June 2015
Teacher's Assistant for Introduction to Macroeconomics
Helped students with classwork and exam preparation for Professor Sudeshna Bandyopadhyay's Introduction to Macroeconomics (ECON 1021) course.

Each One Teach One—College Bound, St. Louis, MO August 2013—May 2014
Tutor
Helped high school students from under-resourced school districts of St. Louis with schoolwork and preparation for SAT and ACT.

AWARDS AND HONORS

2015 – Omicron Delta Epsilon Economics Honor Society
2014 – Principal Financial VIP Scholarship Finalist
2013 – Edward Greenberg Book Prize, awarded to student for performance in Principles of Economics courses